1. Attached as requested is an analysis of [REDACTED]. The analysis has been fully coordinated with the DDS&T, OCI, ONE, and the Near East Task Force. We are prepared to publish this material as an Intelligence Memorandum if it appears appropriate.

2. In general, as you will see, direct evidence is scanty and the major conclusions are drawn largely from inference and limited direct information on a few specified airfields. There is no basis at present for expecting substantial additional direct evidence on this topic in the near future.
